

THREE JUDGES HEAR CHICAGO FARE CASE

Injunction Restraining Order for Cut to Five Cents Up for Decision.

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—Three United States judges opened hearings today on the injunction restraining the Illinois Commerce Commission's order reducing surface car fares from 8 to 5 cents.

The order was issued Nov. 23 and Thanksgiving Day Federal Judge George A. Carpenter issued the restraining order, on petition of the street car companies that the order was confiscatory and violated the Illinois laws.

The fare reduction order followed closely a ruling of the United States Supreme Court refusing to take a hand in the action brought by the City Administration to force the street car companies to lower the fare themselves.

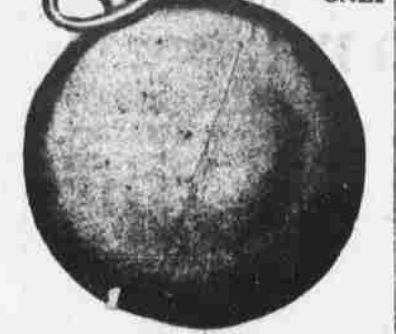

Attorneys for the street car company have contended that a drop from 8 to 5 cents would reduce their operating income by more than $10,000,000 a year and that they had no chance to effect economies to equalize that amount.

BILLED TO SWEAR IN CHARTER COMMITTEE

Arrangements were made today by Gov. Miller to meet members of the Charter Revision Committee at the Hotel Plaza at 10:30 o'clock to-morrow and administer the oath to them. At the same time the commission is expected to elect former Justice Francis M. Scott as chairman and agree to the appointment of a committee to arrange for headquarters, a hearing room and sub-committees to gather preliminary information on which the committee can start actual work after the first of the year.

B. GUTER & SONS 170 NASSAU ST., N. Y. City Hall, At Park Row and Nassau St.GRANDMA USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN HAIR

She Mixed Sulphur With It to Restore Color, Gloss, Youthfulness

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store, all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.—Adv.

HAD HOME IN BRONX, BUT CRAVED THE DRIVE

This Fact, Husband Intimates Caused Marital Woes

Attorney Benjamin R. Speltman of No. 115 Broadway, to-day submitted an affidavit from Julian Roberts to Supreme Court Justice Burr in answer to the application of his wife, Florence, of No. 720 Riverside Drive, for $200 a week alimony and $5,000 counsel fees. Mr. Roberts blames his wife's parents for the action of his wife.

Roberts says that his wife declared that it would be a home on Riverside Drive or nothing, after he had furnished a flat for her in the Bronx and given her a $1,000 touring car. Before marriage, he says, Florence used to send his mother flowers and after the honeymoon alluded to her as a "cheap kike." He says that he agreed to let her go to Nevada and get a divorce, but she didn't go. He denied that his income is anything like $50,000 a year, and that his wife's demand for $200 a week alimony and $5,000 for counsel fees is absurd. Justice Burr reserved decision.
